With the June Primary Election just around the corner, Atlas PAC has updated our list of endorsed candidates for local, state and national elected office. As always, we will continue to present to our membership candidates that practice our core values of limited government, free market, low taxation, and individual liberty.

Join us this month as we host a fundraising reception for the Stop the Special Interest Money Now Initiative featuring columnist Steve Greenhut and Chapman Law School Professor John Eastman. Please mark your calendar for our upcoming events and we hope to see you soon.

Atlas PAC Mission Statement

The Atlas PAC mission is to create an environment of business professionals that believe in the ideals of limited government, free market enterprise, low taxation, and individual liberty to associate, network, and socialize with like-minded individuals. Through this association, the Atlas PAC supports like-minded candidates and issues through its monetary and political support.

John Eastman - Former Dean of Chapman Law School

Steven Greenhut - Franklin Center for Government VP of Journalism, Sr. Fellow at Pacific Research Institute, OC Register Columnist

The Problem: Special interests have too much power in Sacramento.

The Reality: Failed government and a state in crisis.

The Solution: Putting taxpayers in control by stopping corporate & union special interests from giving money to politicians.
